

BECAUSE YOU Prayed

Oct. 10/11
YOU'LL NEVER KNOW

King Hezekiah was up against impossible odds. The Assyrian army was about to destroy the nation. But because he prayed, a whole army was wiped out and he and his people were saved. The same God who delivered Hezekiah 3,000 years ago is the same God who can deliver us today.

DISCUSSION GUIDE

1. How would you describe your current prayer life? Do you tend to be more vague in your prayers or are you specific in what you ask God?
2. What challenges in your life feel like they are impossible and have no solution? How does Hezekiah's story encourage you and give you hope?
3. When you encounter a problem, do you go to God first or is he your last resort? If He's your last resort, what can you change in your life so that you naturally go to God first?
4. A few ways Bob mentioned to start a solid prayer life were: establish a place/time, talk to God about whatever's on your heart, and listen as much as you talk. Which one of these are you good at and which one do you need to focus on more? Share this with someone to hold you accountable this week.

CHALLENGE

Be specific in your prayers this week and in everything, go to God FIRST.
