

In today's world, many people have become more concerned with their online image than having real, authentic friendships. We all need other people. We need people to pray for us, or friends who'll ask others to pray for us or simply remind us of who God is and what he's called us to do.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Think about the friends you spend the most time with. What kind of impact (positive or negative) do they have on your life? In the message, Jason said, "Show me your friends, and I'll show you your future." What do your friends suggest about your future?
2. Read Hebrews 10:24-25, James 5:16, Proverbs 18:24, Proverbs 27:17 and Genesis 2:18. What do these verses say about friendship and community with one another?
3. When two people have deeply felt values in common, there's a greater possibility of true friendship. What commonalities do you tend to seek out when looking for friends? What are the most important ones to you and why?
4. Look at your closest friendships again. Is there a balance of give and take? Or is one person giving nothing in return? What are one or two ways you can be generous in your friendships this week?

CHALLENGE

God created us to be in community with one another. If you haven't taken a step to get connected at Eagle Brook, we'd love to help you find a group. Check out eaglebrookchurch.com/groups to learn more.
