

Some people think all roads lead to God. But the three main religions—Christianity, Hinduism and Islam—are so different that there’s no way they can all be true.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Pastor Bob said the difference between other religions and Christianity is that they operate by the word “Do” versus “Done.” What steps can you take this week to focus on what Christ has already done for you instead of the dos and don’ts of religion?
2. Discuss how you would feel by being in a constant state of striving—meaning aiming for love or acceptance from God. What does the freedom that comes from a relationship with Christ mean to you?
3. “Truth cannot be sacrificed on the altar of tolerance.” “Sincerity does not make something true.” Share your thoughts and ideas about these two concepts and how they impact your beliefs.
4. Pastor Bob talked about three types of people: 1.) You’ve received God’s grace, 2.) You’re skeptical and think a relationship with Christ is too easy, or 3.) You’re ready to receive God’s gift of eternal life. If you’re in group 1, share your faith story with someone. If you’re in groups 2 or 3, what is a next step you can take?

CHALLENGE

Go to the library or pick up a copy of Lee Strobel’s book, Case for Christ. Commit to reading through it in the coming weeks.
